

Portal of the Soul

The radiant light of Love
It ripples through our Hearts
Sent from the river of creation
An infinite flow of life is born

Listen closely for a whisper...
Can you hear the sound?
A primal rhythm pulsing deep inside,
Could it be the heartbeat of eternity?

Ancient frequencies of energy
Issued forth from our Source
Forever delivered into this world
From a realm unrestrained by time

As we enter this new era of transparency
It is time to expand our horizons
And to turn away from illusion
So that a brighter path of truth may emerge

The nature of who we truly are
Is reaching out from inside
For we are all united in Oneness
And we are all equal as Soul

This is our chance to rise up together
And to welcome in each new day
With the courage to live from our hearts
And to benefit one another through love

We are One Humanity
And we have an amazing opportunity
To collectively give birth to the future
Whilst fully embracing the Now
