

A Cry for Freedom

Can you feel the vibration
Of our soulful energy
Its depth of spiritual presence
A heartfelt light of undying compassion
It guides us inward to our core...

Conglomerate atoms, of pure Love
The ultimate Source,
Of our innate creation...

Analogies of a hidden language
Beckoning me with its cryptic intent
Embodying the truth
Deep inside my heart
And illuminating a beautiful vision
Of a sacred pathway into awareness...

An inner call, from a distant realm
The magnificent sounds
Of an orchestra of Angels...

Within this universe of mystery...
It is our hearts that can penetrate the void,
There is no vast distance between dimensions,
We travel so far... for a truth so near...

A forgotten knowledge, held deep inside
The inward vision of the heavens...

There are windows to be opened by all
Through simply having deep gratitude
Towards the ancient wisdom that flows within...
