

Clouds of Obscurity

In a prayer for the unity of creation
There is a heartfelt plea for awareness
Through messages of guidance from the stars
All on Earth must awaken from their slumber

We have been bound by false lines of reality
Ignorance has knitted us into a web of denial
A mistaken perception of life's great purpose
We must reach deep inside, to reclaim our freedom

It is time to transcend the fist of destruction
That had been squeezing the life from our veins
And subduing us from uncovering our true depth
We will now release our hearts, from its forceful grip

Can humanity move into a new era of peace?
How can we create hope for a spirited renewal?
We must surpass our tendencies of negative thoughts
And join together as One in a resonance of strength

The vibration of the universal mind
Entire worlds of love held within its intimate embrace
A presence of wisdom, holistic in its structure
It will saturate our spirits with a purity in Truth

The threads of infinity, are woven into our hearts
It is time to harness the light, that will illuminate our souls

The mysterious journey inside a dream
A precious gift is waiting to be received
For no longer will Love be hidden away
Behind dark clouds of obscurity.
