

The Nature Of Love

Stepping forward...
On a journey together...
Into the new dawn of our existence
An upward spiralling voyage
Of inner strength and courage
Into the twilight of eternity

The incoming tides of compassion
Bring forth an awareness of life
That nurtures our hearts
With soothing waves of kindness
Regenerating the Love...
Awakening the passion...
Uniting our hearts as one...at last

Sparkling waterfalls of energy
The lifeblood of an ancient mountain
Yearning flesh massaged by vibrant energy
A cascading flow from the essence of God's heart
Swirling into pools of feeling
As channelled truth streams from the sky
Sent through from the infinite realms of time

Revelations of inner wisdom
Unveiling the doors of perception
Unlocked by a key of sincerity
Setting free imprisoned hearts
That have been captured by denial
Oh how they have cried for Love

The pendulum of time
Stalled by deep emotion...
The muddied waters have been cleared...
By stillness...

Remembering now a true reality
Allowing a new clarity of purpose
And revealing the simple beauty
Of honest souls embraced by Love

A voice now calls softly from within
Sending through messages
Of Light to be shared...

The ultimate preciousness of Life
Is born from the treasure in your heart...
Something wonderful will happen
If you choose the deep beauty
Held within your true nature of Love...
